INTRODUCTION

This collection consists of items related to the life of Ernest N. Haston of Spencer, Van Buren County, Tennessee. Ernest N. Haston served in a variety of capacities during his life, including being a federal income tax collector, serving in the Tennessee Senate, serving as the Secretary of State for the State of Tennessee for the period 1921-1937, Executive Director of the Tennessee Democratic Party, an attorney, and as an elector for Franklin D. Roosevelt. In addition to his professional career, Haston also enjoyed writing poetry under his pen name "Nathan." Several poems written by Mr. Haston are included in the scrapbooks in this collection. The poems in this collection that were written by "Nathan" (Ernest Haston) have never been published. Permission of the donor of this collection is required before this material can be published in any publication.

The collection is arranged in alphabetical order by type of material. Original order was not able to be determined due to prior work on this collection.

The Ernest N. Haston Papers were donated to the Library and Archives by Mrs. Thomas O. H. Smith.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection consists of items related the life of Ernest N. Haston, including certificates, correspondence, newspaper clippings, a news release, printed materials, programs, photographs, and scrapbooks. The collection spans the period 1898-1965, though the bulk of the materials spans the period 1904 - 1943.

There is a very limited amount of materials available on Ernest Haston, so this collection is very important for information on the life of Ernest Haston. Of particular interest in this collection are the scrapbooks, which include a variety of types of materials about Haston's life and varied careers.

There are twelve photographs in the Ernest N. Haston Papers. Six of the photographs are of Ernest Haston and appear to date from his tenure as Tennessee's Secretary of State (1921-1937). Four of the photographs are of Ernest Haston and his family. One photograph is of an unidentified woman and one photograph is of the bronze statue of Andrew Jackson in the Rotunda of the U. S. Capitol. All of the photographs have been scanned and entered into the photograph database.
